

Helen Streck

President and CEO of Kaizen Infosource LLC

Presentation: "The Next Nine Months: What Information Professionals Need to Know."

Information Management Professionals are seeing changes and challenges on the horizon. Are you ready to meet them head on? The September Greater Chattanooga ARMA Chapter educational webinar is a discussion led by Helen Streck that addresses her findings over the last eight months. Helen will discuss the following points:

- 1) Impacts on Information Management Professionals from the pandemic,
- 2) What is holding fast and true in our profession, and
- 3) What should Information Management Professionals be doing "Right Now" to be ready for the new future.

Bio: Ms. Streck has over 35 years of experience in Records and Information Management program development and implementation for both private corporations and public entities. Streck has also been deposed four times and interviewed by the U.S. Attorney's office for detailing and defending RIM Program governance and practices. Streck has developed Request for Proposals and served as project manager for her clients in selecting and implementing ECM solutions for organizations. She has served as director of corporate records and information management for pharmaceutical companies, and Records Manager and consultant for municipal government agencies, pharmaceutical companies, manufacturing and law firms. She has crafted Information Management program strategies for diverse organizations and built concrete, actionable steps for implementation across a broad spectrum of domestic and international clients. Streck is active in ARMA International where she is a board member of the Greater Chattanooga ARMA Chapter. In addition, she has published articles in various professional newsletters, and a past contributor to the monthly columnist.
